

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) Procurement Support

NHS Arden and Greater East Midlands

NHS Midlands and Lancashire

Are you confident you are embedding equalities into your procurement processes in line with your legal duties?

Public sector organisations have a legal duty to meet the requirements of the Equality Act 2010, and compliance should be integral to each stage of the procurement cycle.

Strengthen your procurement process and avoid legal challenge

- ▶ Protect your procurement from delays and legal costs
- ▶ Procure services that better meet the needs of the population you serve
- ▶ Make robust service decisions that have EDI at their core
- ▶ Enhance your organisational performance through more inclusive procurement.

What makes us great

- ▶ A proven track record of providing procurement support to many different health care providers and the public sector
- ▶ Robust expertise in applying the requirements of Equality Law and the Procurement Act 2023
- ▶ Extensive experience working with corporate processes that underpin procurement
- ▶ Flexible and adaptable support to meet your procurement requirements
- ▶ A large team of EDI specialists with multi-sector experience
- ▶ We are an NHS organisation committed to public service values.

What's included

- ▶ End-to-end procurement support to ensure you are fully compliant
- ▶ Development of procurement exercises that embed EDI principles
- ▶ Support in developing your specification and technical questions
- ▶ EDI evaluation of the essential elements of the procurement cycle
- ▶ Moderation of procurement exercises to clarify scores for those bidding
- ▶ Training to support those involved in procurement processes.

